The Record of their Loyalty.

Is Utah loyal? Aye, most loyal, beyond successful challenge or contradiction, as is and always has been proved by all her sayings and doings. — Deseret News.

From time to time we have recorded evidences of Mormon loyalty from the "sayings" of her elders and prophets; and also pointed to her loyal "doings", as illustrated at Mountain Meadows and in Echo Cañon. In charging the Mormon leaders with disloyalty to the Government, we have been actuated by no frivolous or malicious motive. In all our allegations against them we have "spoken from the card". We have whereof we write, and let it be understood once for all, that for every crime and sin which we have laid at the door of these Mormon "prophets" we have answering proof from their own records. We are free to admit, and are glad to admit that there are among the people a few worthy men who retain in their hearts a love for the brave old flag of their country; but they are not of those who are deep in the counsels of the self-styled "prophet"; they are not among those who in secret conspire to devise the ways and means of oppressing and enslaving the people of Utah, and embittering them against that Government whose leniency and forbearance, their leaders boast, is caused by fear of Brigham Young! Hitherto our charges have been pronounced malicious and slanderous; the old cry of "persecution" is raised again, and the people are told that we are their enemies! Out upon such quibbles and subtleties! The record of the Mormon leaders is of so dark and damning a character in respect to all we have ever charged them with, we do not wonder that they tremble and pale with fear, at the very mention of "that vile sheet, the Edifice". We give below a few more evidences of Mormon loyalty in the past, and we intend to continue the record from time to time until the people learn the depth of infamy to which their masters have fallen.

Brigham Young, addressing the people in the "Bowers", August 31, 1856, said, "I say, as the Lord lives, we are bound to become a Sovereign State in the Union, or an independent nation by ourselves, and let them drive us from this place if they can. They cannot do it! I do not throw this out as a banter; you Gentiles and h'e o y and basswood 'Mormons' can write it down if you please, but write it as I speak it."

It is so recorded most worthy Prophet. How do you like the picture? As an evidence of Mormon loyalty, it is significant, is it not?

Again from the same: "The sound of Mormonism is a terror to towns, counties, states, the pretended republican Government, and to all the world."

We have been living in "Zion" for some time and haven't been badly frightened yet. We believe, however, that "Mormonism" was once a "terror" to surrounding towns and counties. In Illinois and Missouri for instance! "Pre-tended republican Government" is decidedly good as one of the loyal "sayings" of the Prophet. Another from the same source is as follows:

"They have already presented a resolution in Congress that no man, in any of the Territories of the United States, shall be allowed to have more than one wife, under a penalty not exceeding five years imprisonment, and five hundred dollars fine. How will they get rid of this 'awful evil' in Utah? They will have to expel about three hundred millions of dollars for building a prison, for we must all go to prison; and after they have expelled that amount for a prison and roofed it over from the summit of the Rocky Mountains to the summit of the Sierra Nevada, we will dig out and go preaching through the world."

Farewell Brother Brigham! Although not exactly roofed over, you are considerably hemmed in now; and when you "dig out" leave this matter behind you: "He left his country for his country's good!"

Elder J. M. Grant in the Tabernacle, March 2, 1856, gave expression to his "loyalty" as follows:

"They are threatening war in Kansas on the slavery question, and the General Government has already been called upon to send troops there. Well, all I have to say is, success to both parties! And in relation to the election of Speaker in the House of Representatives at Washington, the North, South, East, and West, have each other by the ears; success to all parties, say it!"

Pretty good for the "Lieutenant General of the Mormon Militia." We wonder if that man ever took the oath! There's "loyalty" for you of the true Mormon stamp. "When both parties are killed off the 'Saints' will possess the land." Selah!

Lorenzo D. Young, in the Tabernacle, Oct. 25, 1857, illustrates the loyalty of Mormon "sayings" as follows:

"I have long prayed that the Lord Almighty would destroy the nation that gave me birth, unless the rulers thereof repent; yes, I pray that it may be broken to pieces and become like an old vessel that is broken and thrown out to rot and to return to its native elements."

Pray on Brother! The prayers of the fervent, righteous man availeth much! The country is not near destroyed yet. O the loyalty of these Mormon Elders! Why shouldn't Utah be the Saviour of the nation, "as Brigham says!"

One more extract and we are done for to-day. The Mormons claim a great deal of credit for having once had a Battalion of men in the United States service, and refer to it every now and then as an evidence of their loyalty to the Government. In an address to the Battalion, soon after its arrival in Utah, Brigham Young spoke as follows:

"What gave rise to the brethren being called upon to go into the United States service? I will tell you some things about it. Suppose it had been shown to you that there were men in Washington, and influential men to, who held control of the affairs of the nation to a great degree, who had plotted to massacre this people while on the frontiers in an Indian country, you would doubtless have gone to work to circumvent their plans; consequently all we had to do was to beat them at their own game, which was did most successfully. I was, and am fully persuaded that a Senator from Missouri did actually apply for and receive papers from President Polk, to call upon the militia of Iowa, Illinois, and Missouri, and if he wished more (!) he had also authority to go to Kentucky and raise a force strong enough to wipe this people out of existence, provided that those men had been driven from their homes should refuse to comply with the unjust demand upon us for troops! Without doubt this was the decree in Washington, and I was moved upon to create it. As quick as this idea entered my mind it came to me, I will beat them at their own game. Did we not do it? I think we did!"

So much for the "Mormon Battalion." How does the second suit you, O ye loyal and patriotic "Saints!"

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION-EDIFICE.]

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

Washington, March 14. The House has passed the Senate bill in relation to the Court of Claims with an amendment that after each term of the Court, a certified copy of the decisions thereof shall be furnished the heads of departments.

Spaulding of Ohio explained that the joint resolution offered by himself on Monday for the taxation of national currency, having been characterized as rank repudiation, nothing was further from his mind than to infringe upon the national credit, which he regarded as he did the apple of his eye; the object of the resolution was simply to permit greenbacks to be taxed in his State just as State bank notes had heretofore been taxed. He did not intend for the resolution to apply to interest-bearing bonds.

Stevens confessed that when he made the remark complained of he was not fully aware of the object of the resolution, and was now satisfied that the remark was inapplicable.

The House then proceeded to consider the bill to protect military officers from civil prosecution for acts done during the rebellion by virtue of military authority or necessity. Cook, of Illinois, advocated the bill saying that it was similar to the act of 1833, which was approved by President Jackson, and that the United States is bound to protect these officers. Harding, of Kentucky, opposed it and made a speech to show that the act could be used to protect the most despotic and outrageous abuses. Further consideration was postponed until to-morrow. The Speaker presented a resolution of the Oregon Legislature, regarding the tax on mining claims. Referred to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

The Speaker also presented a resolution of the Oregon Legislature in reference to the annexation of Walla Walla county and Washington Territory to that State. Referred to the Committee on Territories. The House then went into a Committee of the Whole on the joint resolution making an appropriation for the Paris exhibition and providing that the President furnish one or more vessels for the transportation of such articles to France. The Committee on Public Lands reported that the proposed equalization of soldiers' bounties, by the issue of land warrants, would require one-fourth of the public domain for that purpose, the effect of which would be to reduce the value of warrants and stimulate speculation to a most alarming extent, check emigration, and practically defeat the purpose of the homestead law, the Committee therefore ask a reference of the whole subject to the Military Committee with recommendation that the Committee report a bill for the equalization of bounties in money or by issue of bonds. The army bill as it finally passed the Senate to-day provides for ten white and two colored regiments of cavalry, forty-two white and eight colored regiments of infantry, and one thousand Indian scouts for the frontier service. Companies in time of peace are to be minimum of one-third. Artillery regiments remain unchanged, officers above the grade of Lieutenant are to be from West Point, the remainder are volunteers who have creditably served two years. The Veteran Reserve Corps is thrown overboard. The bill goes to the House where another is pending more favorable to volunteers.

GENERAL NEWS.

Washington, March 14. Freeman Clark, controller of currency published a sharp letter addressed to the Secretary McCulloch, saying that the public statement of the condition of the Treasury is inexcusably roaucous, also that the Secretary has sold during the last month, without authority of law, ten millions of bonds, and concludes: "I will add that I can show to the satisfaction of any one that neither of your monthly reports for the last four months has shown within fifty millions the amount of money in the treasury, or on deposit to Government credit."

Baulty appeared on the floor of the Senate to-day in such an offensive condition of drunkenness that he had to be removed.

Pensenden reported the deficiency appropriation bill, with an amendment reducing several items and striking out others, among them the item for the expense of taking the census in Arizona in 1864. The bill places the salary for Treasurer at San Francisco, at $1600 additional as Assistant Treasurer of the United States.

Boston, March 14. Jared Sparks, the historian and ex President of Harvard College, died at Cambridge this A. M. of pneumonia.

The suspension of the Whipple File Manufacturing company, is announced to-day, with heavy liabilities attributed to falling market for goods. The company had a capital of $700,000.

New York, March 14. Senor MacKenna, the Chilean Agent and Stephen Rogers Chilean Consul, are charged with attempted violation of the neutrality laws, and admitted to $5000 bail each to-day in the United States Circuit Court.

DISPOSITION OF THE MINERAL LANDS.—The people of the mining regions in our Western States and Territories are, it is evident, much excited by the propositions in Congress to make sale of mineral lands somewhat in conformity to the rule established in the sale of agricultural lands. Such is understood to be the proposition of the bill on this subject introduced into the Senate by Sherman. Against any such proposition the entire population of those States and Territories—unless we except a pitiful faction of speculators—is a solid unit. The peculiar character of mining enterprise has dictated rules and laws of possession and improvement, which suit the nature of the business and contribute, in a way not possible upon any other system, to the development of the mineral wealth of the country. The working of these laws has been in the main highly satisfactory. The rules have differed in different districts, owing to the varying kinds of mining suggested by differing characteristics among the districts. The Spanish mining laws, enacted by the highest legal authority, judiciously respected the mining regulations which sprung out of the wants and exigencies of mining communities. Those laws allowed an individual to "denounce" as it is called, a tract of land belonging either to the State or even to individuals. This denouncement gave the person making it the right, within limits prescribed according to the nature and scope of the undertaking, to dig for ore and extract the metal, upon the sole condition of paying therefor a seigniorage. It strikes us that legislation by Congress on this subject should rather follow than attempt to lead. It should, as far as may be, respect and confirm mining rules and customs established by the mining communities. From the products of the mines, like as from the products of any other branch of industry, the Government should derive a revenue. The introduction of such a principle into our mining legislation would be equitable, and it would satisfy the great bulk of the population of the mining States. A different plan—especially any such as seems expedient in the eyes of some members of Congress, would not only produce immense dissatisfaction, but would play into the hands of speculators, to the disadvantage and oppression of the miners. The consequence would be a retarded development of our mineral resources; though we cannot well anticipate the time when that development ought not to be fostered by the most liberal legislation that can, with any sort of justice to the Government, be adopted.—St. Louis Republican.

EXCELSIOR MILL.—It appears that our friend Frank Hall has paid a visit to the Excelsior Mill, where there is a Crosby & Thompson Desulphurizer at work, and is under the impression that the machine is a success. He gives a test—"3,100 pounds of Gunnell ore yielded five ounces, 14 dwts. of gold, $270 in coin value." The coin value of that weight of gold is not more than $100. Mr. H. describes the process through which the ore goes—crushed dry with stamps, conveyed by an elevator into the cylinders, where it is thoroughly desulphurized, conveyed by another elevator into the amalgamators. Of these last he says: "But one set of pans are in working order, and even these are not used." So that before the amalgamating portion of the machinery is brought into use at all, the institution is pronounced a success! In the Monitor Mill, they have successively tried all the amalgamating machines in the country. They have done little better at the Crosby & Thompson Mill at South Boulder. It is the amalgamating that seems to stick this machine. We know of several instances in which it has saved a mass of copper and bismuth and missed the gold. It seems to us that it is rather premature to announce a success before the main branch of the works has even started. Now, we have said that we don't believe the Crosby & Thompson Desulphurizer is worth spending money and time on. It has been tried sufficiently to show that its great idea of condensing volatile gold is a humbug. It may be made to accomplish a certain amount of desulphurizing and do it thoroughly, for what we know, but of what avail is that when it leaves the ore in such a condition that amalgamation is bound to be a failure? And suppose they succeed in overcoming this difficulty, there is at least one other far better machine for the same purpose, tried and proved so. The Ke-Fu-naco is not half so expensive, requires no power to run it, doesn't use one-fourth the wood, is made from materials found on the ground, does not wear out, and will do four times the work, and so far at least as experience goes, in a much better shape of amalgamating. Why, then, should people bother with these cylinders? In our opinion, it is only an expense and waste, and it is in the hope of being of benefit that we have said what we have.—Black Hawk Journal.

1865.—BRIEF SUMMARY.—The editor of the London Telegraph, in his leading article, rapidly reviews the most important happenings of the world, during the past year, thus: "At home, the oldest and most trusted of English politicians has expired; and a new Parliament has been chosen by the people to carry on the business of State. Across the Atlantic, the greatest civil war of modern times has been brought to a close; and, if its termination was signalized by the most atrocious assassination recorded in history, the memory of an individual's crime has almost been effaced by the unparalleled splendor of a whole nation's clemency. Our survey shows us France still swayed by the indomitable will and fertile brain of one man; Italy advancing, by slow, but certain steps, toward her right position among the nations of the earth; Austria seeking a reconciliation with the most important constituents of her strangely-mixed empire; Germany still troubled and perturbed by the restless ambition of a military power; Denmark bearing a sore misfortune with a noble dignity; Belgium deprived of its venerable king, but faithful to its liberal institutions; and Russia herself at length marching onward in the path of progress. On every side the retrospect is full of interest and instruction."

A MORMON THREAT.—In a late discourse delivered at the Salt Lake Tabernacle, Elder Orson Hyde wound up as follows: "Does the Government want any darker war to fall upon it? If so, I can tell you just how they can bring it about—let them interfere with the Latter Day Saints."—Tribune [Cal.] Courier.

INTERNAL REVENUE.—A table prepared for the Report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, show that the receipts of internal revenue for the year ending June 30, 1865, were $211, 129,529.17, of which the amount collected through the collectors and assessors was $211,113,804.69. The expense of collecting this sum was $4,669,665.31.— Colorado stands at the head of all the territories, having contributed more than double the amount of either Nebraska or New Mexico, and more than twice that of Utah, all of which were getting needy before Colorado was thought of. The following is the table of Territories, as given in the Report:

Colorado	$130,052 01
Nebraska	86,054 50
New Mexico	89,042 98
Utah	41,525 93
Washington	76,740 93

Tribute of Respect.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, March 12, 1866.
To the Worshipful, James M. Ellis, Master
Wardens and Brethren of Mount Moriah Lodge, U. D. F. & A. M.:—The undersigned, your committee appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of this Lodge on the demise of our Brother, Henry Canfield, late of Chelsea Lodge, Michigan, beg leave to submit the following, and recommend their adoption:
Whereas, In the dispensation of a benign
Providence, we have been called upon to conspire to the tomb, our esteemed and worthy Brother, therefore Resolved, That the members of Mount Moriah, F. & A. M., deplore the early demise of their Brother, and tender the bereaved wife, afflicted parents and friends their heart-felt sympathies.
Resolved, Although our late Brother closed his earthly and honorable career in a strange land, yet he was not among strangers, nor in his late illness without the consolations of warm and attached friends and comforters.
Resolved, That this Lodge bears grateful testimony to the kindness and attention of the Commanding Officer at Camp Douglas, and the unremitting care of the fellow-officers of our deceased Brother during his last hours.
Resolved, That while we bow submissive to the will of Him who doeth all things well, we deeply deplore the death of one so dear to us, and regret that the all-wise God has called him from us in the prime of manhood, and in the bloom of a noble career.
Resolved, That the members of this Lodge
wear the usual badge of mourning for ten days,
in token of respect for our deceased Brother.
Resolved, That "The Union Vedette" be requested to publish these resolutions, and that a copy of them be forwarded to his family.
